

WELCOME

Our cellar represents winegrowers who produce wines as carefully and thoughtfully as we approach dining and hospitality. You will see our acknowledgements to the regions of Champagne, Burgundy, Rhône, and Madeira— wines from these regions were likely to populate the original 18th century cellar on property – and were favourites of President Jefferson & Family.

Our guiding principle is to put emphasis on farmers who prioritize land stewardship, and terroir-driven products. This means winegrowers concerned with sustainability and low-impact farming, and winegrowers who add little to their wine but the grapes themselves.

The Clifton is a special place—as its custodians – we take every step on property to emphasize its uniqueness. The wines on our list are from equally unique places. Welcome to our table...

SOMMELIER SELECTIONS BY THE GLASS

CABERNET SAUVIGNON: RDV, 'RENDEZVOUS'

Middleburg, Virginia, 2017

50

Without dispute, one of Virginia's vanguards. Subtle yet decadent aromas of wild berry cobbler, dried flower, chocolate and smoked meat comprise the nose of this Bordeaux-style red blend.

BORDEAUX BLEND: LATOUR, 'PAUILLAC'

Pauillac, Bordeaux, France, 2014

55

A favourite producer of Thomas Jefferson, This wine leaps from the glass with raspberry pie, kirsch and blackberry preserves scents followed by more serious notions of cigar box, and blackcurrant pastilles.

PINOT NOIR: PENNER-ASH, 'ESTATE'

Willamette Valley, Oregon, 2018

40

This wine reflects the region's distinct textures, flavors and terroir, with beautiful elegance and balance. Strawberry jam, ripe cherry, and brown sugar mixed with whole peppercorn. An elegant palate with hints of sweet plum and boysenberry. Velvety tannins and balance of sweet and savory leave you wanting more

SYRAH: SAINT COSME

Cotes-Du-Rhone, France, 2018

14

Pristine black cherry and raspberry flavors are accented by hints of green herbs and bramble in this full-bodied but invigorating red. It's delightfully easy drinking but nuanced and peppery. Ripe, integrated tannins linger elegantly
